

In The News

Dare to be Deep

National tour features Haida Dancers from British Columbia

It's a lunch-time event for oceans & you're invited!

The Canadian Parks and Wilderness Society is touring Canada to promote marine conservation. They get deep with the Wildlands League chapter in Toronto on November 3rd.

Ceremonial dancers from the remote Haida Nation will delight audiences, with emcee Alanna Mitchell, author of "Sea Sick: The Global Ocean in Crisis". It's the Haida's first national tour! Also on hand, marine experts from CPAWS and Parks Canada.

Join us

Wednesday, November 3
TMX Broadcast Centre Gallery
@ The Exchange Tower, 130 King Street West

Showtimes: 12:15pm or 1:15pm

FREE Admission and poster giveaway for "Take Your Kids To Work Day"

See the media release

View pictures from the kick-off event in Victoria

Gwaii Haanas Photos

Dare to be Deep: The National Tour for Canada's Oceans is supported by:

Partners: Parks Canada and Council of the Haida Nation

National Sponsors: Mountain Equipment Coop, Bluewater Adventures, Delta Hotel and Suites, and the Archangelo Rea Family Foundation.

Local Event Sponsors: KWG Resources and The Ontario Trillium Foundation

THANK YOU!

---

Did You Know?

Only 1% of Canada's coastal waters are protected.