

Mega
Mines
At What Cost?

In Ontario's sensitive Far North, Ring of Fire mining companies are proceeding with plans for open pits, roads and rail. These pose enormous risks for carbon rich wetlands, clean, free flowing rivers such as the Albany and Attawapiskat, and habitat for threatened wildlife like caribou. See Wildlands League in the Toronto Star.

We need your help!

Tell the government what you think.

Did You Know?

- You can get real time updates. Follow Executive Director Janet Sumner @summerwild and Conservation Land-Use Planning Program Director

Anna Baggio @annabwild on Twitter.